This year the museum will be developing a new Open Learning Centre in the garden, supported by the Heritage Lottery Fund and due to be opened summer 2012. It will provide improved visitor facilities, collections storage, and space for community engagement and learning programme use. There will be some disruption to the garden. Further events will be organised and others may have to be cancelled. Please check out the website or contact the museum for up to date information.

The museum is open from 1 April to 31 October,
Monday to Saturday, 10am to 4.30pm.

Car and coach parking is available in the town (there is no museum car park).

The ground floor is accessible to wheelchair users (a video of the first floor galleries is available). Toilets are suitable for wheelchair users with assistance.

DISCOVER...

Soak up the atmosphere of a Victorian kitchen and 17th century hall within this historic town house. There are many original architectural features and period fittings, such as our working 'Beetonette' kitchen range.

EXPLORE...

The rich local history and archaeology of East Dorset is displayed in the museum. In the East Dorset Villages Gallery you can experience a Victorian schoolroom, walk back through a village street and research your village. With 10 galleries and changing exhibitions, there is plenty to see and do for all ages.

LEARN...

Visiting groups may book guided tours. For a tour with a difference guides will be in period dress.

We offer hands-on learning supporting the National Curriculum and have been awarded the Heritage Education Trust's Full Sandford Award for Education.

ENJOY...

The museum shop stocks a range of gifts, souvenirs and secondhand books.
